

Ethics and the Seven Deadly Sins: A Visit with Temptation
**&
An Ethic Beyond Ethics
Learning Objectives and Bibliography
Charles S. Pohl LCSW,CGP
208-571-3242 charlespohl@live.com

Objectives

1. List the seven deadly sins and how they can manifest in clinical practice.
2. Describe why what we don't know about ourselves can lead to ethical infractions more easily than what we don't know about our professional codes of ethics.
3. List the ways we can increase our self awareness and knowledge.
4. Identify the two kinds of clients that can promote the most inclination toward ethical lapses.

Bibliography

Encyclopedia Britannica. "Seven Deadly Sins"

Freud, Sigmund. (1930). Civilization and Its Discontents

Kopp, Sheldon (ed). (1976). The Naked Therapist

Menninger, Karl. (1973). Whatever Became of Sin?

Miller, Alice. (1981) The Drama of the Gifted Child

Perel, Esther. (2006). Mating in Captivity

Pope, Kenneth., Sonne, Janet., & Green, Beverly. (2006). What Therapists Don't Talk About and Why.